Beginning the New Year.....

It is good to begin a new year with Jesus!
It is good to sail into the uncharted waters of ‘07 because He is your Captain and the Anchor of you soul;
It is good to walk upon unexplored trails because He is your Guide and the Guardian of your way;
It is good to face the unknown because He is your Wisdom and the One who knows the beginning from the end.
It is good to have your hands empty, for He will fill them;
It is good to have your heart open, for He will cause it to overflow;
It is good to have your eyes focused, for in His light things will be made clear;
It is good to have your ears listening, for His voice will be the sweetest sound you hear;
It is good to have your feet grounded, for He is your Rock and the Foundation upon which you stand.
It is good to trust Him because He makes no mistakes;
It is good to serve Him for He does all things well;
It is good to honor Him because He has no equal;
It is good to obey Him for his plans always include what is best;
It is good to rest in Him for He is the Lord of the easy yoke;
It is good to depend upon Him for He takes care of you daily;
It is good to delight in Him for He is your exceeding great reward.

May the Lord fill your new year with good things.

*Behold,
children are a GIFT of the Lord;
the fruit
of the womb is a REWARD.
Psalm 127:*

So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. Genesis 1:27

Eve, the mother of all creation, understood her first pregnancy and the birth of her son, Cain, to be an act of God. "With the help of the Lord I have brought forth a man," was her cry. (Genesis 4:1) God declared a covenant with Isaac before he was conceived in the womb of a laughing 90-year-old woman. (Genesis 17:21) An angel promised Abraham through your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed." (Genesis 22:18)

Since 1973 Americans have aborted more than 40 million children. We have forgotten God's word revealed through Isaiah that He creates, forms, redeems, and calls us by name while we are yet in the wombs of our mothers. We belong to God who formed us so that we might proclaim His praise (Isaiah 43:1,7,21) and reflect His image to the world. We are not to be like the world sacrificing our children to other gods (Deut. 14:2)

Our understanding of God's great love for human life is derived from scripture. God's word informs our work to protect life at every stage of development.

We are created, loved and call by God from before birth to LIVE to the praise of His glory! (Eph. 1:11-14)

A Note From Pastor

Winter returned with a vengeance this past weekend. Fortunately we here in Coffeyville missed most of the freezing rain that brought down power lines in so many places. We did however get the sleet. That has now turned to solid ice in most places. As I sit to write this article, the sun is shining and even though the temperature is in the teens, the ice is melting in some locations.

We did have church this past Sunday and had a good attendance for the conditions. Four persons, who have been attending for some time, presented themselves for membership. What a blessing; Chris and Michelle West united with us by statement of faith and previous baptism and Mark and Julie Stukesbary united by transfer of letter. Remember to share your joy with them when you see them and welcome them once more to our fellowship.

Our Annual Meeting and dinner went very well. Paula Barnett and Sharon Caulkins were elected to the Council and Jeff Morris was approved as treasurer. We shared our joys and talked briefly about the challenges for the New Year. It seemed that we were all in agreement that God has some wonderful things in store for the coming year.

Special thanks go to Kay Littlepage for her service on the Council for two terms and for her work in arranging the dinner for our Annual Meeting. Thanks also to all who helped set up for the dinner and also clean up after. We are a very blessed portion of the family of God.

Let's pray for better weather this weekend and let's look forward to joining together in worship this Sunday. I am trusting that it is going to be a wonderful day to worship the Lord. And it will be a wonderful time of sharing with brothers and sisters in Christ. See you here!!!
