Pastor's Thoughts

What a marvelous Palm Sunday we shared here at Grace Fellowship. There was such a wonderful spirit from the get go on Sunday morning all the way through the Easter egg hunt and fellowship Sunday evening. It was just a wonderful day. You know it is very apparent to me that what makes these times special are you people who love the Lord and love one another and love those who come to share with us who may not have been with us before. Thank you for sharing God's love in such powerful ways.

This coming Sunday we begin our day at Cedar Bluff with our Sunrise Service. I am already looking forward to that time and am anxious to share. After we have had a little breakfast there, we will come back to the church and have our bible study and then at 10:00 a.m. we will have our Easter worship celebration. We trust that God is going to fill His house this year and we hope and pray that we will see souls come into His kingdom. We will begin our Easter celebration with baptism and then share with our music and the preaching of God's Word. It is going to be a great time of fellowship. I look forward to sharing it with you as God gives us this opportunity one more time to celebrate the Easter events. Don't miss the blessings.

Pastor Gerald
