A Note From Our Pastor

It was such a joy for Mary and I to be back with you this first Sunday after our vacation. It was a great time of celebrating Mothers day as well. We are so blessed by your faithfulness in worship and the wonderful sweet spirit you share with all who come. People are hungry for this kind of worship experience. Thank you for making Grace Fellowship such a warm and welcoming place.

Since I failed to do it last week, let me express in this Newsletter my thanks and appreciation to Salina Meek for doing the children's message while Mary and I were away, and thanks to Brian for sharing the messages during my absence. Many of you expressed to me how much you had enjoyed his messages. Thank you!

This Saturday evening will be the first fund raising concert from our Relay for Life team. It will be held at the Country Time Theater and all are invited to come. Donations will be received for the Relay for Life effort. A second concert will be held here at the Church on June 16th. Again, donations will be received.
