TWO PHILOSOPHIES
There are two main philosophies of Bible translation with a wide spectrum range between them:

- ▶ WORD-FOR-WORD
Tries to adhere as closely as possible to the wording and structure of the original languages without sacrificing clarity
- ▶ THOUGHT-FOR-THOUGHT
Tries to be as clear and understandable as possible in translating the original languages without sacrificing accuracy

TRANSLATION	TRANSLATION PHILOSOPHY	1 CORINTHIANS 13:4-5	DISTINCTIVE
NASB New American Standard Bible	An uncompromising effort to maximize transparency to the original documents	Love is patient, love is kind and is not jealous; love does not brag and is not arrogant, does not act unbecomingly; it does not seek its own, is not provoked, does not take into account a wrong suffered,	An update of the American Standard Version, which was published in 1901. The NASB seeks the highest possible level of transparency to the original documents that can be achieved while still retaining comprehensibility in English.
AMP Amplified Bible	A broadly formal equivalent translation with explanatory alternate readings and amplifications	"Love endures with patience and serenity, love is kind and thoughtful, and is not jealous or envious; love does not brag and is not proud or arrogant. It is not rude; it is not self-seeking. It is not provoked [nor overly sensitive and easily angered]; it does not take into account a wrong endured."	A popular resource that was created to add color to the Bible reading experience through explanatory alternate readings and amplifications.
NKJV New King James Version	Prioritizing transparency to the same source documents as the original KJV but with updated English	Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil;	A modern update of the King James Version. The purpose was to refresh and modernize the original KJV without losing its distinctive flavor.
KJV King James Version	Blending transparency to the form and structure of the Bible documents that were available at the time with elegant 17th-century English	Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;	A landmark in the history of English Literature. Published in 1611, the translation's purpose was "to deliver God's book unto God's people in a tongue which they can understand."
ESV English Standard Version	Building on the foundation of the RSV, prioritizing transparency to the original documents	*Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful"	An Evangelical update of the Revised Standard Version (1951). The ESV prioritizes transparency to the form and structure of the original documents.
CSB Christian Standard Bible	Blending transparency to the original documents with accessibility for the contemporary audience	Love is patient, love is kind. Love does not envy, is not boastful, is not arrogant, is not rude, is not self-seeking, is not irritable, and does not keep a record of wrongs.	Produced under the sponsorship of the Southern Baptist Convention, the CSB seeks to combine transparency to the original documents with comprehensibility in modern English.
NRSV New Revised Standard Version	Maintaining the formal equivalence philosophy of the RSV while seeking to reflect contemporary English usage	Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful;	An ecumenical revision of the Revised Standard Version (1951) with a new focus on ease of understanding.
NAB New American Bible	Seeking to combine transparency to the source documents with a good level of comprehensibility in modern English	Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, (love) is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury,	Published under the direction of Pope Pius XII, this Catholic version of the Bible represents more than 25 years of effort by the Catholic Biblical Association of America. All editions include the Deuterocanonical/Apocryphal books.
NIV New International Version	Recreating—as closely as possible—the reading experience of the original audience	Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.	Created directly from the best-attested manuscripts, the NIV is the world's bestselling modern-English Bible translation. It seeks to provide the optimum combination of transparency to the form and structure of the original documents and comprehensibility of the original meaning in every verse.
NCV New Century Version	Prioritizing accessibility for a broad audience	Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous, it does not brag, and it is not proud. Love is not rude, is not selfish, and does not get upset with others. Love does not count up wrongs that have been done.	Based on the ICB (International Children's Bible), the NCV is a simple, readable translation that places the priority on communicating the original meaning of the text.
ICB International Children's Bible	The first direct thought-for-thought translation developed especially for children as its primary reading audience. With its third grade reading level, the text is easy to read and understand for children, English as a second language readers, and anyone who desires a clear comprehension of the text.	Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous, it does not brag, and it is not proud. Love is not rude, is not selfish, and does not become angry easily. Love does not remember wrongs done against it.	The International Children's Bible® was faithfully created as a true translation of the original Greek and Hebrew texts (not a paraphrase or an adaptation). The language style is simple enough for children to read and understand on their own. This makes it a perfect choice for readers of all ages and levels, especially those who use English as a second language.
NLT New Living Translation	Balancing accuracy and clarity to convey the original meaning of the text	*Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged."	Translated by a team of evangelical Bible scholars and stylists to convey the modern English equivalent of the meaning of each phrase of Scripture. The result is a faithful, understandable rendering of the original Biblical texts.
NIrV New International Reader's Version	Written at a third grade reading level—among the youngest reading level of any translation—the NIrV is based on the NIV created for young readers and anyone else who would benefit from easier-to-read language.	Love is patient. Love is kind. It does not want what belongs to others. It does not brag. It is not proud. It does not dishonor other people. It does not look out for its own interests. It does not easily become angry. It does not keep track of other people's wrongs.	The NIrV is based on the NIV, written for a third-grade reading level. Like the NIV, the NIrV achieves great accuracy through equal rigor to the original languages and today's English. The NIrV makes the Bible understandable to young readers and anyone else who would benefit from easier-to-read language.
The Message A Paraphrase	A contemporary rendering of the message of the Bible in everyday idioms	"Love never gives up. Love cares more for others than for self. Love doesn't want what it doesn't have. Love doesn't strut, doesn't have a swelled head, doesn't force itself on others, isn't always 'me first,' doesn't fly off the handle, doesn't keep score of the sins of others,*	The Message uses informal modern English to help contemporary Bible readers feel the vitality and directness with which God's word originally communicated.
